 1) THEATRE IN NOVEMBER

We're embracing the shorter days and colder weather with an event-filled November that will keep you uplifted through the holidays!

By now, we hope you've all had a peek at VocalEye's new and improved website! Our intention is to make your experience navigating VocalEye's In-Person Events and Online Zoom Events as accessible as possible. We value your feedback always, so if you have any input for us, we'd love to hear it! Please contact lindsey@vocaleyeye.ca with your comments and feedback.

Reminders:

☞ Most of our theatre partners offer ticket discounts to VocalEye users. Be sure to mention VocalEye when you book your ticket!

☞ Ticket Access rebates are available for those in financial need. Please contact donna@vocaleyeye.ca before purchasing your tickets.

☞ For schedule updates, visit the VocalEye website

 4) HOW BLACK MOTHERS SAY I LOVE YOU

A powerful story of immigration, family, and sacrifice.

Described on Sunday, November 12 at 2 pm at The Cultch Historic Theatre, 1895 Venables Street, Vancouver. The Cultch offers a 50% ticket discount to VocalEye users. To purchase, please call 604-251-1363.

Hard-working Daphne left her two young daughters in Jamaica for six years to create a better life for them in America. Now thirty years later, proud and private, Daphne relies on church and her nearby dutiful daughter to face a health crisis. But when feisty queer activist Claudette arrives unexpectedly from far away to help out, her arrival stirs up the buried past, family ghosts, and the burning desire for unconditional love before it's too late.

From the author of the blockbuster hit 'Da Kink In My Hair, Trey Anthony.

Described by Eileen Barrett.

 5) I Think I'm Fallin': The Songs of Joni Mitchell

A tribute to the life and music of a Canadian legend.

Described on Sunday, November 19 at 2 pm at the Belfry Theatre, 1291 Gladstone Avenue, Victoria. The Belfry offers Pay-What-You-Want tickets to all of their performances. Please call Box Office at 250-385-6815 to book your tickets.

Created especially for the Belfry in 2016, this stirring musical is a tribute to one of this country's most exceptional musical treasures. Using only her words and music—including such iconic songs as Both Sides Now, Big Yellow Taxi, Chelsea Morning, River, and A

Case of You—we weave a romantic story of heartache and love. It's a celebration of the enduring legacy of Joni Mitchell, the poet and the composer, and a testament to her influence on generations of musicians, and a tonic for our times.

Described by Jill Sharpe.

 6) OCTOBER ROUNDUP

There are still two more shows this month that we don't want you to miss out on!

Upcoming Te Tangi ā te Tūī is a really unique production in so many ways: not only is there extraordinary circus art, music and dance, but the entire show is told in Te Reo Māori (the Māori language). This show is also one that VocalEye Describer Cas Wanden specifically requested to describe!

Why? Cas Wanden grew up in New Zealand, surrounded by Māori culture. Describing this performance felt like a “slice of home”. They shared this with Amy in a recent chat:

“If you've ever been interested in the concept of cirque du soleil, this is a similar vibe, rooted in indigenous culture.”

“This is a deeply genuine and authentic cultural glimpse of what it means to be an Indigenous New Zealander.”

- woven through with acrobatic performances, with music, with dance - there is a beautiful use of the stage and set to create music... it's also told with a lot of heart.

Cas is excited to take on the live description of this show, not only tackling the dance and acrobatics, but also live translation from Te Reo Māori into English. Another cool aspect of this performance is:

“There is also an auditory aspect to the show itself, making it a unique and immersive experience.”

👉 Te Tangi ā te Tūī

 9) COMMUNITY EVENTS

ONLINE

Emergency Preparedness Workshops

Register for AEBC's Emergency Preparedness Workshops for the Blind, Deafblind, and Partially Sighted in BC

AEBC would like to thank everyone who participated in our survey about Emergency Preparedness for the blind, deafblind and partially sighted in BC back in the Spring.

The feedback received from those who completed the survey, as well as input from focus group participants was most valuable and helped tremendously to inform the research needed to move forward with our project in delivering workshops and providing online resources which will go up on our website later in the year.

AEBC will be holding upcoming virtual workshops in October and November.

October Workshop

Register for one of the October workshop sessions below. Both will cover the same topics.

Evening option: Tuesday October 24, 6:30pm to 8:30pm

Register for the daytime option

Part 2 - Evening option: Tuesday November 28, 6:30pm to 8:30pm

Register for the evening option

Topics covered:

- What should be in your emergency supplies kit and your grab-and-go bag
- How to prepare for heat domes and winter storms
- The provincially funded BC Hydro portable air conditioner program

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting. If you would like assistance with registering for any of the workshops, please call the AEBC BC Affiliate President, Chantal Oakes at 1-250-863-6341.

Your support, participation and encouragement are what keep us going!

Buy Me a Coffee is a great way to let us know you care about our java levels and perfect for smaller donations that don't need a tax receipt.

Canadian residents who would like a tax receipt can donate once, or join our small but mighty Make it Monthly Team, through Canada Helps.

Special thanks to the generous funders, donors and supporters who help us make the arts more accessible for people who are blind and partially sighted.
