

 VOCALEYE ALMOST LIVE ZOOM

 LITE NITE | MIX TAPE

Wednesday, April 10, 2024 at 6:30 pm Pacific Time

Almost Live Episode #150

Part memoir, part scientific inquiry and part love song to listening.

Zorana shares her real-life story about discovering her love of music. A child of Pakistani immigrants who grew up in the suburbs of Toronto, Zorana's obsession with sound began at school. There she learned to play the flute at band camp, using her imagination to play the notes. When her teacher instructs her to visualize the notes in her mind, she discovers she can play the music she sees in her imagination. Suddenly becomes keenly aware of the sounds around her, including the angry voices of her parents as they fight. She loses herself in the music she compiles as mixtapes on her double-cassette player.

Produced by CBC PlayMe Podcast, this solo show is written and performed by Zorana Sadiq.

Almost Live Lite Nites are more casual presentations of accessible audio plays or audio described films. This event will not be recorded.

Bring your popcorn and join us for this month's audio play!

Zorana Sadiq is an award-winning Toronto-based actor, playwright, and classical musician. A multidisciplinary artist of Pakistani descent, her work spans different types of performance from theatre, verbatim theatre, radio and television to chamber music, modern opera and new music.

"A marvellous show full of sound and fury. The multitalented Zorana Sadiq has put together a rich, honest and complex playlist inspired by her eclectic life and career." -Now Magazine
